

Adoption of the International Holocaust Remembrance Alliance (IHRA) working definition of antisemitism

The College of Legal Practice (the College) has adopted the International Holocaust Remembrance Alliance (IHRA) working definition of antisemitism. That definition states:

“Antisemitism is a certain perception of Jews, which may be expressed as hatred toward Jews. Rhetorical and physical manifestations of antisemitism are directed toward Jewish or non-Jewish individuals and/or their property, toward Jewish community institutions and religious facilities.”

Antisemitism has no place at the College. The adoption of this definition is an important step in ensuring the Jewish community at the College have confidence that any concerns regarding antisemitism will be taken seriously and investigated swiftly and at the highest level. The College is committed to providing an environment where everyone is treated fairly and with dignity and respect. The College will use the definition as a practical tool for tackling antisemitism and to guide any investigations.

11th October 2021